This service is aimed at any individual contemplating, or going through Divorce or separation proceedings, that wishes to understand in depth information on their spouse including their assets, business dealings, property and relationships.

By using our Divorce Discovery Service, you will fully understand the worth of the person you are separating from. You will understand their financial standings and business worth. We will check the Form E they completed to ensure they have been honest and disclosed everything. If they have not, they are committing a criminal offence and will be in contempt of Court. This would put you in the strongest position to negotiate a settlement that suits you.

Divorce Discovery investigations not only protect your current or future wealth and assets, but they safeguard your reputation and standing in the eyes of the Court.

What happens if you forge full-steam ahead into an agreement then discover they lied to you about their assets?

If they undervalue them you will be cheated out of what you are rightly due; we can prevent that.

Are skeletons waiting in the closet, ready to surprise you?

Be in possession of all the facts before the Court date.

What other problems are lurking beneath the surface? Are their business dealings all honest and above board?

You'll never be 100 percent certain that you are getting a fair settlement as planned, but our Divorce Discovery will put you in possession of all the facts and ensure a beneficial, rather than detrimental settlement, that is on your terms.
